

Dudley SENDIASS

(Special Educational Needs &
Disability Information, Advice and Support Service)

About SENDIASS

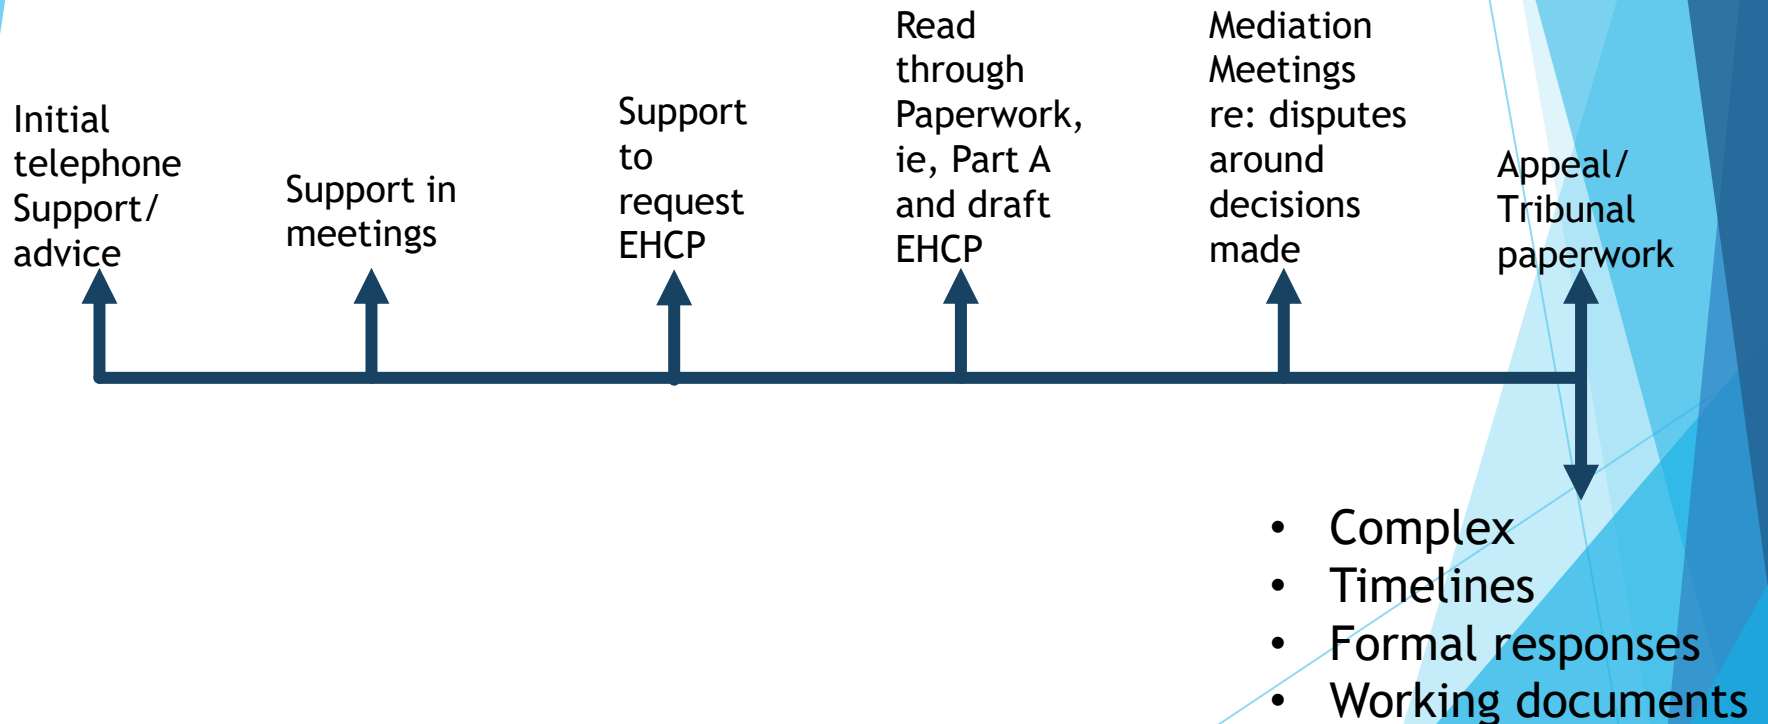

- ▶ Dudley's statutory commissioned service which provides impartial confidential, free information, advice and support to parents, children and young people with or without an EHCP around education, disability, health and social care matters.
- ▶ Support parents, carers with children with SEND
- ▶ Support young people with SEND upto 25 years of age

Dudley SENDIASS - what we do

- Information and advice on all matters relating to SEND health and social care
- Provision of advice through individual casework
- Working separately and impartially with parents and also young people
- Assisting parents, young people together and to understand and interpret information and apply it to their own situation
- Resolving disagreements
- Part of the local offer
- Workshops for parents and young people

Services we provide

Provide a continuum of services around all matters relating to SEN and disability:
